The Way We Were . . . in 1940

James Daniel Varey. Jim was born in Toronto "the City of Churches," but at the time of conversion he was not aware that there is only one Bible common to every denomination. In youth, he was a proverbial rolling stone, wandering southward to Florida where he attended High School. Upon his subsequent return to Canada, Jim was married, and together the young couple were converted. During his College years, he has played in the Orchestra and has worked as an outboard motor mechanic. We shall long remember Jim's lively interest in theological discussions. In future service, we know that in every action he will seek to glorify Christ in obedience to "Whatsoever ye do in word or deed do all in the name of the Lord Jesus."

The Class Hymn

Tune: Pax Tecum

Peace! perfect peace! in this dark world of sin?
The blood of Jesus whispers peace within.

Peace! perfect peace! by thronging duties pressed?
To do the will of Jesus, this is rest.

Peace! perfect peace! with sorrows surging round?
On Jesus' bosom naught but calm is found.

Peace! perfect peace! with loved ones far away?
In Jesus' keeping we are safe, and they.

Peace! perfect peace! our future all unknown?
Jesus we know, and He is on the throne.

Peace! perfect peace! death shadowing us and ours?
Jesus has vanquished death and all its powers.

It is enough: earth's struggles soon shall cease,
And Jesus call to heaven's perfect peace.

Rt. Rev. E. H. Bickersteth, D.D.

Grace Isabelle Woodcock. Grace was born in Brantford, but early in her life her family moved to Peterborough where she received her education. The Master's call, "Follow Me," was accepted by Grace and within a few years He led her to T.B.C. We, her classmates, have learned to love her and are glad to claim her as one of our number. Grace has definite convictions which she is not afraid to express, not even during class periods. Grace served on our Hospital Committee, but her greatest contribution has been with her sweet soprano voice. Now she is anticipating further preparation for service in the foreign field. The song, "God Holds the Key of All Unknown," is precious to Grace because she knows the One who holds the key.

Friends....

Packing up the dreams God planted
In the fertile soil of you;
Can't believe the hopes He's granted
Means a chapter in our lives is through.
With the faith and love God's given
Springing from the hope we know,
We will pray the joy you'll live in
Is the strength that now we show.
But we'll keep you close as always;
It won't even seem you've gone;
'Cause our heart in big and small ways
Will keep the love that keeps us strong.
And friends are friends forever
If the Lord's the Lord of them.
And a friend will not say "never"
'Cause the welcome will not end.
Though it's hard to let you go,
In the Father's hands we know
That a life-time's not too long
To live as friends.

THANK-YOU, GRADS, FOR HELPING TO MAKE OBC A BETTER PLACE. WE LOVE YOU AND WISH YOU ALL THE FATHER'S BLESSINGS AS YOU GO ON TO SERVE HIM!

As I look back over my three years at OBC there is a lot that I am thankful for:
1. God - for His grace which has carried me through.
2. Friends - both students and staff. God bless y'all.
3. For this opportunity to save a fortune on wedding invitations: You're all invited to our wedding to be held on Sat. June 9, 1990 at 1pm at Olivet Baptist Church 36 Margueretta St., Toronto

Only four years, but it seems like forever! OBC is . . home. I've enjoyed the years of late night fellowship and early morning academics. At the end of your program it's not your marks that count, or even your friends, but your relationship to God and your character. Also My book 1001 College Pranks - A Training Manual will be in the bookstore shortly.

I want to take this opportunity to thank my wife, Kerry! If it had not been for her support I don't think I could have made it. I would also like to thank Eona Childs who has constantly prayed and supported me in his whole adventure. To Jeff Bershe who made my life interesting for a couple of years. Finally, to the Lord for the chance to be in His service. Thankyou Father!

Penning at timeless philosophical epitaph is like decorating an old room. At first one is pleased with the results, but later on the room loses its brilliance. It's a lot like life. At times its beauty fades into insignificance like the dash on a tombstone (1964-?) At other times it is an unending trail unfolding into eternity.

My sister wrote a message in my Bible: SIN WILL KEEP YOU FROM THIS BOOK OR THIS BOOK WILL KEEP YOU FROM SIN. Unfortunately the first part was the reality of my life. By God's grace, in 1986, I learned the truth of the second part. This "revelation" from God brought me to OBC, music, relocation, graduation, and now a Pastorate. Five years and 30 thousand Kms is not normal for a BTH yet God used these things to teach me about servanthood; a lesson I'm still learning yet in all this: "All God's giants have been weak men who did great things for God because they reckoned on God being with them" - Hudson Taylor. MIMI YIN MEI QUONG
Bachelor of Religous Studies
My years at OBC are filled with many great memories: my twin sister, all nighters, Rebecca and her x chocolates, his unfoiling love, 3 south, little one pepermint tea and Ps. 4-2:1. But most of all, I thank God for trials, friends and spiritual growth at OBC. Joshua 1:9

$25 000 later and what do I have to show for it. A wife, a piece of paper, a snowbowl championship, 1 hockey & 2 volleyball championships, Doctrinal biases, a Philosophy of Ministry, and a lot of dry rund (Field Ed.) At a gorage sale I could have got all this for $7.50, except the wife part. That much was worth it. II Tim 2:1, 2

God is good! He blessed me beyond what I ever would have imagined - treasured memories, Dear friendships, challenges, growth, an excitement for the future. Thank you Beth, Dar, Will, Janet, Trav, and many others, for making these past three years mean what they do to me. Steven Curtis Chapmon writes: "this is the day that He has made, to take us where our faith has never been before.

I came to OBC as a newly married tronsfer student. I could not have made it through without the love, understanding, support and commitment of my beautiful husband Kevin. How God has blessed me! The prayers offered by Kevin, my family and my mom-in-law never ceased to give me strength. Be still and know that God is in control and will guide your life.

OBC has stretched me in severol ways. It has chollenged me to study to have sound biblical beliefs. It gave me the chance to make the 3 best friends of my life. As well, I twice ran for student council positions vs one candidate each time but lost both times; I have been hailed "The King of Pastel", however, without even whispering my intention to run.

WHOSE JOB IS IT?

This is a story about four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was asked to do it. Everybody was sure Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done.

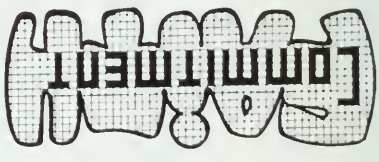
Do You Get Involved?

Or Are You An

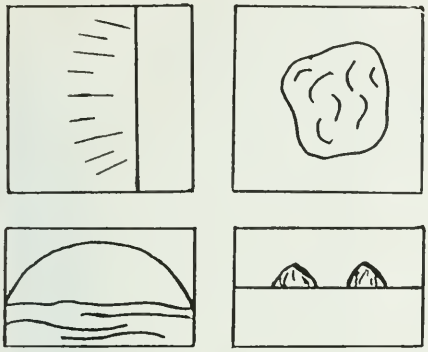
Innocent Bystander??!

Answer the following questions to find out whether or not you're an involved student.

1) During class:
a) I'm always lively and willing to accept new ideas
b) I manage to stay awake for at least half a class!
c) I have to drink Jolt to make it through the classroom door!
d) zzz!
2) The classes I enjoy most are:
a) challenging courses such as Theology, Romans, and Old Testament
b) classes where I can express myself such as preaching or philosophy
c) lunch!
d) playing pool
3) During classroom discussions, I:
a) take active part, I can't wait to jump in
b) I talk only when the teacher confronts me
c) find these discussion times the best times to catch up on some sleep.
d) zzz!
4) I feel that classroom attendance is:
a) of the utmost importance
b) pretty important
c) Kind of important
d) not necessary at all!!!
5) When the teacher is taking up homework problems, I:
a) Listen very carefully to make sure mine was alright
b) ask questions when I'm unsure
c) copy down everything even if I don't understand
d) hide under my desk because it's not done!!!
Score yourself 4 points for a), 3 points for b), 2 points for c), and 1 point for d).
20-15 let's face it you're involved!
15-10 you are bordering on being obnoxious!
10-5 you are typical at OBC
5 why do you bother showing up for class at all?!?



what is it?



1990 Final Exam

Clockwise from Top Left:

i) a person sneezing around a corner
ii) a snowball before it hits you in the face
iii) the rear view of a snow man's head
iv) a tiger hiding behind a snowbank

resolutions for the next school year

pick one

This year, I won't disturb the class by whispering silly and unimportant notes to my friends - I'll do it using sign language and by learning how to read lips.

Last year I resolved to be punctual to all my classes. This year I resolve to look in a dictionary to see what punctual means.

My teacher says I need to work on my writing skills, so I resolve to spend lots more time writing - writing notes to the new student who sits in the fourth row, that is.

This year, I resolve to stay on top of all my work - even if it means sitting on my books.

YEARBOOK STAFF...

Frank developing pictures in the darkroom.

Well, here it is . . . The final product. This is our yearbook. MAXAIPA 1990.

You may know that "MAXAIPA" means sword, hence our swordsmen sports teams. What you might not know is how to pronounce it. The "x" should be pronounced as "k", and the "p" should be pronounced as "r". The word would look like MAKAIRA if spelled as it sounds.

I would like to thank the people who helped put the yearbook together. Special thanks to Jan Blok who helped us keep our finances straight, and thanks to Krystyne and Frank who gave of their time sacrificially to help when deadlines were due . . . and past due. (Now I know why they call them deadlines.)

Let me share a verse for all those who had a part in MAXAIPA '90.

"Not with eye service as men pleasers, but as the servants of Christ doing the will of God from the heart."

Eph. 6:6

John Steadman
Editor

The Lord gave me the strength I needed when I was weary to continue working on this book. Even after late nights, missing pictures and disappearing pens we finished this book. It has been a great and interesting year.

I'd like to say a special thanks to all those who helped to keep me somewhat sane. And a very special thanks to John, Frank, and Brenda for all the work they have put in. You guys were great.
